

Bark`n`Bound

Dog Walking and Pet Services

Our Policy

Come Rain or Shine

WE ARE UNABLE TO WALK AGGRESSIVE DOGS OR BITCHES IN SEASON FOR SAFETY REASONS

Our Security Policy

- . Bark`n`Bound respects your privacy and we are committed to protecting information collected about you.
- . You may leave your key on file with us, or have it returned after your booking.
- . Your personal details, address and security information are stored in a separate location from your keys at all times. We are the only people with access to this information.
- . If your keys are misplaced or you have locked yourself out, then you can call us for assistance. There will be a charge for this service.
- . We will not use our clients for references without written permission to do so.
- . We will lock all doors upon entering and exiting your home.

Our Safety Policy for Dogs

- . All dogs should wear an identity tag with your name, address and contact number on and properly fitted collars. It is illegal not to do so. In addition Bark`n`Bound will also attach their own identity tag to your dogs' collar, with our business name, contact numbers and address, whilst in our care.
- . We will carry your vets' details and two emergency contact numbers of friends or relatives, in the case of an unforeseen circumstance.
- . Dogs will be provided with fresh water at all times.
- . Dogs are always kept on leads around roads, going to and from our vehicle.

. Dogs will only be walked off-lead in safe locations and only if express owner consent has been given see off-leash walking permission form. We are unable to take any responsibility for a dog which fails to return to command.

. We will not walk aggressive dogs, or bitches in season for safety reasons.

. For group walks, it is required that dogs have current vaccinations, worming and flea treatment for the protection of each dog group.

I have read and agree to Bark`n`Bound's policies.
